ROCK ISLAND.

By Its Acquisition of the Seaboard Air-Line It becomes the Largest Railway System in the World.

New York, Aug. 13.—The deal consummated yesterday, by which the Rock Island interests acquire the practical control of the Seaboard Air-line, gives the former road 2,600 more miles of rail, a steamship line from Florida to Cuba and one from Norfolk to Baltimore.

The deal also takes away the individuality of the last independent railroad in the South. It puts Rock Island trains over controlled roads into Washington, Tampa, Norfolk, Wilmington, Savannah and Jacksonville on the Atlantic seaboard.

Junction with the Rock Island system will be made at Birmingham over the Frisco. By traffic agreements Rock Island trains can even enter New York over the Baltimore & Ohio from Washington.

Rock Island this becomes in mileage, capital, extent and richness of territory traversed the greatest railroad system in the world, its mileage amounts to almost 20,000, and it exceeds by many hundreds miles the great Pennsylvania and New York Central systems.

No Change in Management.
Official announcement is made that the present management of the Seaboard Air-line will be continued the property being operated separately by the Rock Island.

The Seaboard Air-line will land freight for the Rock Island into New York city also by way of the Old Dominion Steamship lines, with which it has a working agreement.

The new Rock Island property is capitalized at $125,000,000, including $75,000,000 of bonds. Of these bonds $10,000,000 are to be used for the construction of the new line between Atlanta and Birmingham.

Of this last issue $6,000,000 were sold in April of this year, and it is understood the balance of $4,000,000 has recently been purchased by a syndicate made up of J. P. Morgan the First National Bank and J. H. Blair. The Seaboard owns its entire trackage as far north as Richmond, Va. From Richmond to Washington it has one, sixth interest in the Richmond & Washington railroad over which all the Southern systems enter the capital.

The Rock Island now extends from the Atlantic west through Birmingham, over the Frisco to St. Louis, Memphis and New Orleans, and by way of the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf to Western Texas, where it taps its main line leading from Chicago to El Paso. It also goes west to Denver and Colorado Springs. It touches Kansas City, Omaha and St. Paul, and extends far into the Dakotas. It has a grade railway along the Mississippi valley from Chicago south by way of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois and the Evansville & Terre Haute. It reaches the Pacific coast over the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific lines.

TOO MUCH "HAWATHA"

Kansas Man Runs Amuck at a Band Concert.

Winfield, Kansas, Aug. 14.—Angered by the music of a band concert Gilbert Twigg, once a soldier in the Philippines, armed himself last night with a double-barreled shotgun and a revolver, and attacked a crowd of 3,000 persons that surrounded the band stand, killing three men, probably fatally wounding three others and injuring twenty more before he was shot by a policeman. Beside Twigg, the dead are Sterling Rice, Dawson Tolleson and D. Bowman. The band had just finished playing "Hawatha" when Twigg came up and fired both barrels of the shotgun at the bandstand. Before the policeman shot him Twigg succeeded in getting in three more shots.

The Democratic Committee Saturday recommended the following Democrats for appointment as election commissioners: W. T. Cooper, L. C. Cravens, C. L. Dade, David Smith and W. W. Radford. One of the five will be appointed Commissioner for this county.

EVERYBODY'S GOING

To the State Fair at Owensboro Next Month.

And See the Great Exhibits For Which $30,000 Cash Prizes Will be Given.

The great Kentucky State Fair, easily the biggest in the South, is only five weeks off, and as September 21st approaches the interest increases rapidly. The enterprising city of Owensboro is on the hustle as it has not been before in years, and there is going to be a show that no citizen of Kentucky can afford to miss. Many of the State's exhibits for the St. Louis Exposition will first be seen at the State Fair at Owensboro next month, and the fact that many of the prize winning exhibits will be sent to the World's Fair next year will prove an additional incentive to every one. Cash amounting to more than $20,000 will be distributed in prizes for all kinds of stock, farm and mineral products, household work and other exhibits.

Crofton is to have a bank. The capital stock will be $15,000 and all of the stock has been taken. Mr. John M. Dallas is the chief promoter of the enterprise. Several Hopkinsville people are stockholders and the rest are Crofton parties. The stockholders will hold a meeting Aug. 25 at 10 a. m. for the purpose of electing directors, who will choose officers. A. A. Bradley Croft will likely be made President. The parties interested have an option on five lots in the town and one of them will be selected for the building. The bank will be a two-story brick and will be elegantly furnished.

FAIRLEIGH'S FALL.

Thrown in Sink-Hole and Ankle Was Broken.

Mr. Fairleigh Vaughan, the well-known stye contractor, fell in a sink-hole at Trenton Thursday night and fractured an ankle. Mr. Vaughan was superintending the work of metaling the streets of Trenton. One of his teams became frightened and in attempting to catch the mule he was thrown in the hole, which is about ten feet deep.

Mr. Vaughan was brought to the home of his father, in this city, Friday night, and is doing quite well, but it will be some time before he will be able to resume work.

HARMONY

With a Vengeance, In the Removal of Chairman Gary.

Work Accomplished By Proxies Which Did Not State What Was Contemplated.

Chairman Geo. E. Gary has lost his position as the chairman of the Democratic county committee, of which he has been a member for nearly ten years, because he dared to support Judge C. H. Bush for circuit judge against the wishes of the eminent statesmen who have been entrusted with the duty of "harmonizing" the Democratic party, by providing places for themselves and their kinsmen. It will be remembered that Mr. Gary was elected chairman last April, to succeed Mr. Geo. V. Green, who had rendered himself ineligible and whose hostility to the Christian county candidate made his immediate removal necessary in the opinion of Judge Bush's friends.

Geo. E. Gary.

After Mr. Green had been removed, a hue and cry was raised upon the ground that he had been removed "without cause." The party law provides that a chairman may be deposed at pleasure, but a committeeman cannot be removed from the committee without cause. Mr. Green was not a member of the committee, and his removal as chairman was within the law. During the heat of the contest the machine undertook to gather enough proxies from absent members to re-elect Mr. Green, but failed and finally proposed to recognize Mr. Gary as chairman without dispute if he would agree to call a meeting of the committee after the contest was over and let the full membership consider the chairmanship. This agreement was entered into, but broken promptly by the Green faction, whose newspaper organ repeatedly disputed Mr. Gary's right to the chairmanship and has persistently refused to recognize him as chairman, except to obey his call for a meeting.

It may be added here in passing that the removal Saturday was without any cause whatever, except to make warfare on Bush's friends, after Bush himself had been triggered out of his nomination. The question of "cause" has not been raised this time.

When the committee met Saturday the Green faction had on hand 11 or 12 members and proxies. Two former country members, who now live in the city, were brought in and allowed to vote for precincts they no longer represented. Two other proxies from men who have never been elected committeemen, or attended a meeting, were produced. With these four, a total of 15 votes, were on hand, though less than half of them were present in person. Of the anti-machine members, 7 were present in person, 4 by proxy and one absent.

Chairman Gary, after transacting the business for which the meeting was called, the selection of five names to be recommended to the election board, called attention to the chairmanship and told the committee to take such action as it desired in regard to removing him.

A motion was made by Mr. J. T. Clifton to declare the office of chairman vacant.

In putting the motion the chairman made the statement that he wanted the responsibility for this action placed where it properly belonged. That Mr. Geo. Green and his son-in-law, Mr. Ashby Edmunds, had put in the entire week visiting the members of the committee, obtaining proxies to accomplish his removal as a piece of pure personal spite for his (Green's) removal in April, which was accomplished in order to give Judge Bush representation in court at Eddyville. The chair ignored the patent illegality of a number of votes that were cast, also that the proxies did not provide for his removal and the further fact that no cause whatever was assigned for the act, which of itself makes the action void, according to the contention of the Green faction.

This statement was made with Messrs. Green and Edmunds both present, they having refused to vacate at the request of the chair for an executive session, but remained throughout the proceedings, industriously circulating among the members; coaching the uninformed and spurring the timid into action. The Clifton motion was adopted by a vote of 15 to 9. Mr. Gary and some of his friends not voting.

The committee then elected Councilman James West chairman. He received 12 votes to 6 cast for Mr. W. W. Radford. Mr. West was one of Judge Cook's strongest supporters in the recent contest. Mr. Radford also was a Cook man. Mr. West appeared and accepted the honor.

Judge Bush's friends on the committee are indignant at the treatment accorded Mr. Gary. It is due to Mr. Gary to say that he is throughout all. He raised no protest, even when those not members of the committee cast illegal votes against him. He was willing to let the machine manage its campaign in its own way.

It is worthy notice upon Mr. Gary and 1,600 Democrats who voted for Bush, that they are not wanted in politics this year is the wise course to pursue, the credit for the "harmony" brought about is due

Col. Ashby Edmunds and his lieutenants, whose shoulder straps are to be the guiding stars of the Democracy party, in the victory its "boys in the trenches" are to win in November.

ANNIE OAKLEY IN PRISON.

Famous Shot of Buffalo Bill's Show Steals to Buy Cocaine.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Annie Oakley, daughter-in-law of Buffalo Bill, and the most famous woman rifle shot in the world, lies in a cell at the Harrison street station, under a Bridewell sentence for stealing the trousers of a negro in order to get money with which to buy cocaine.

This is the woman for whose spectacular marksmanship King Edward himself once led the applause in the court yard of Buckingham Palace.

When arrested Saturday on the complaint of Charles Curtis, a negro, she was living at 140 Sheridan street, she gave the name of Elizabeth Cody, but it occurred to no one to connect her with Col. Cody's famous daughter-in-law. However, when brought before Justice Caverly, she admitted her guilt.

"I plead guilty, your honor, but I hope you will have pity on me," she begged. "An uncontrollable appetite for drugs has brought me here. I began the use of it years ago to steady me under the strain of the life I was leading, and now I have lost me everything. Please give me a chance to pull myself together."

The striking beauty of the woman whom the crowds at the world's fair admired, is gone. Although she is only twenty-eight years old, she looks almost forty. Hers, in fact, is one of the extreme cases which have come up in the Harrison street police court. She will be taken to Bridewell to serve out a sentence of 45 days and costs.

"A good long stay in the Bridewell will do you good," said the court.

The prisoner's husband, Samuel Cody, died in England. Their son, Vivien, is now with Col. Cody at the latter's ranch on the North Platte. The mother left Buffalo Bill two years ago and has since been drifting around the country with stray shows.

Doctors Meet.

The County Medical Society held a meeting Monday at 10 a. m., in the office of Dr. B. F. Eager. The attendance was large. A most excellent paper was read by Dr. J. E. Stone, of Herndon, on Appendicitis. The discussion that followed was very interesting and helpful. This society is steadily growing in membership and interest.

All regular physicians and those "who do not practice or claim to practice sectarian medicine" are invited to membership.

The next paper will be presented by Dr. E. C. Anderson on the third Monday in September.

WILL ECLIPSE ALL OTHERS.

Kentucky Building and Display of State's Products and Resources.

The plans of the Kentucky Exhibit Association, looking to a big advertisement of the State, industrially, commercially and naturally, at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in St. Louis next year, are rapidly maturing. Ground has just been broken for the State building on the best site on the grounds for a structure of the kind, and the heads of the different departments are now actively engaged in collecting material for the exhibits in the main places of the big show.

The Kentucky building is well known by the leading architects and contractors of the exposition to be the handsomest and most attractive of all the state buildings that have yet been begun. As to the display to be made in the different departments, there is no telling how extensive and profitable the advertisement will become. Thousands of square feet of space have been reserved for the "New Kentucky": 6,000 for minerals, 5,000 for tobacco, 5,000 for other agricultural products, 3,000 for horticulture, 3,000 for forestry, 2,500 for education, hundreds of stalls for live stock and individual space for machinery, liberal arts, transportation, varied industries, manufactures, etc., etc.

The Kentucky Exhibit Association is losing no time in getting these exhibits ready. M. F. Johnson is now making a tour of the state to see what counties will be represented in the agricultural and horticultural exhibits. W. U. Grider has just completed a visit to practically all the mineral counties and secured the promise of the best in every classification. Wm. Beaumont is starting out in a few days to gather the most attractive woods, commercially and otherwise, for the forestry display. Chas. D. Campbell is devoting two days each week to meeting the tobacco trade in the different sections and getting the most striking samples of "the weed." Prof. H. G. Brownell has just called on all the county and city school superintendents to learn what districts may be depended on for educational displays. L. F. Dorsey has issued a circular to every member of his committee on live stock—125 in all—asking for information as to the number of stalls that will be needed. The World's Fair officials have offered $25,000 in premiums on live stock and Kentucky should be able to bring back a big bunch of this money taken on her horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, chickens, etc., etc.

The Exhibit Association is contemplating paying the entire expense of stock sent from the state to the exposition and also awarding medals in the name of Kentucky to all prize winners. Up to this time the Association has raised about $30,000, the solicitation having been done largely by mail. There are many more counties that have not subscribed their apportionment of the $100,000 and the secretary of the organization is seeking to cover these in brief personal canvasses. Within the past month he has visited Frankfort, Lancaster, Richmond, Winchester, Paris, Lebanon, Stanford, Danville, Lexington, Covington, Newport, Springfield, Harbourside, etc., and has everywhere met the greatest encouragement.

The association needs many thousands of dollars more to be able to put into effect all its plans, and it is hoped that subscriptions will continue to roll in. Those of our citizens who have not contributed and intend to do so will aid the cause very much by delaying no longer. A dollar given now will be worth two dollars given in the fall. The building is being put up and all the exhibits must be collected before winter sets in.

MAIL MATTER

To be Handled and Delivered by Baggage Men.

Postmaster-General Payne has decided to make the experiment of employing baggage men on trains which are not provided with mail clerks to take charge of and deliver and open newspaper mail. This decision has been reached after a long much consideration and in response to a petition filed by many of the leading newspapers of the country, who asked the Postoffice Department to provide facilities for distribution of open bundles of papers along the lines from trains which carry only closed pouches. There are a large number of such trains, and as the department is not represented by an employee on them, the Postmaster-General declined to assume responsibility for papers not enclosed in the pouches. Second Assistant Postmaster-General Schallenberger then suggested the expedient of employing the baggage men to take charge of the mail in such cases, and the suggestion was adopted. The plan contemplates that the baggage masters shall be sworn in as Postoffice Department employees, and that they shall be paid for their services. It is intended that they shall deliver the papers to those to whom they are addressed at points along the line from the car doors, thus saving much time which would be lost in case the papers were enclosed in the pouches, as this would necessitate their being taken to the local postoffices before they could be delivered to agents. It is estimated that the cost of the service through the baggage men will be much less than if postoffice employees were supplied for all such trains.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery), says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drumsburg, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world. There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used. It is no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form for children are adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take." For sale by C. K. Wiley.

INDICTED

The Russellville Woman Accused of Poisoning Her Babe.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 12.—Mrs. Annie Albee Oppenheimer, of Russellville, Ky., was today indicted by the Hamilton county grand jury for murder in the first degree. She is charged with the murder of her infant child.

Mrs. Oppenheimer has been in jail here for several weeks, and upon examining trial was held over to circuit court. This time child is alleged to have been poisoned.

Story of the Crime.

Mrs. Oppenheimer came to Cincinnati from Russellville several months ago and secured a place in a lying-in hospital here. A child was born about six weeks ago, and a few days died under circumstances that indicated poison. An investigation was made and an autopsy showed mercurial poison in the stomach of the baby.

The nurse who had attended Mrs. Oppenheimer testified that she had seen white tablets fall from under the woman's pillow, and that they had not been given her by the hospital physicians. Another nurse testified to handing her a box of tablets from a stand in the room. A box was found in which the poison was believed to have been kept. Traces of the drug were found in the box.

Mrs. Oppenheimer's husband had not lived with her for three years, and several sensational letters were found from Russellville parties, indicating that the father of the child was a well-to-do man of that place, and that he evidently had a prearrangement with Mrs. Oppenheimer to put the babe out of the way. This party, who signed himself "Prince," and "Jesse" furnished Mrs. Oppenheimer with money.

All of this evidence pointed strongly to murder, as did the fact that Mrs. Oppenheimer made no preparation whatever, as to clothing, etc., for the child. She has been denied bail and will await trial in jail. Her father and mother and probably her partner will provide legal counsel for her.

Popular Cartoons.

The art of newspaper illustration in its present form is a development of recent years. Newspaper cartoons have become a most popular feature of up-to-date metropolitan daily papers. The unique and catchy drawing now appearing daily on the front page of The Chicago Record-Herald is one of the many special features of that great paper. The Record-Herald has been fortunate in securing one of the best young artists in the country to carry out its popular policy of presenting each day a humorous and good-natured cartoon. Mr. Ralph Wilder is one of the coming men in newspaper work. His success has been as rapid as he has been good. He shows all of the good natured humor and the brighter side of everyday common life, which has carried his work to a very popular success. His drawings are on all of the various subjects of popular interest, political and otherwise. Current events are vividly portrayed in a way that pleases, yet often giving just criticism in a way that does not offend. Through his excellent work on eastern magazines Mr. Wilder first attracted universal attention. The Record-Herald recognized in him at once a cartoonist of unusual promise, and congratulates its readers on having been fortunate enough to engage him.

FOR BIG DAMAGES.

Carrie Nation Will Sue the City of Scranton, Pa.

Carrie Nation's summary conviction for selling hatches in violation of a city ordinance was declared illegal by the trial jury at Scranton, Pa., when her application for a writ of habeas corpus came up for trial. The writ was sustained on the ground that the magistrate's order was defective. Mrs. Nation's counsel will bring suit against the city for $50,000 damages for false arrest and imprisonment.

Cured Paralysis.

W. S. Bailey, P. O. True, Tex., writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was introduced to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sores, frost bites, and skin eruptions. It does the work." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at R. C. Hardwick's.

Porter Will Contest.

Bowling Green, Ky., Aug. 12.—Elvis H. Yortter, defeated candidate for the Democratic nomination for mayor, together with four defeated candidates for the council, has filed a motion contesting the primary, alleging that it was unfair.

RESULTS TELL.

There Can be no Doubt About the Results in Hopkinsville.

Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of a Hopkinsville citizen can be easily investigated.

What better proof can be had? Mrs. W. L. Johnson, of 615 Jessup avenue, says: "My husband suffered for several years with a kidney complaint which made its presence known by a most severe aching to his back, often becoming so bad especially in the morning when rising or on occasions when he was obliged to do considerable stooping or lifting, that he could scarcely move about. It occurred to him while reading an advertisement in our local papers about Doan's Kidney Pills that they might at least give him some relief, and acting on the thought he went to Thomas & Trahern's drug store and got a box. The treatment proved the merits of the remedy. The aches and pains were relieved and the other symptoms disappeared. I have the best of reasons to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and am confident that in every case they will do all that is represented for them."

A Worm Killer.

J. A. J. Montgomery, Puxico, Wayne Co., Mo., writes: "I have little two girls who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge. The first two doses brought four worms from one of them, the next two doses, twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches. The other child was only relieved of four worms. It is a most excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms, it helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's.

Results of an Accident.

One man was killed and four injured when a horse-drawn body inured in a trolley car accident at Philadelphia.

Speculative.

The desire to "get rich quick" leads many otherwise conservative men and women into a kind of speculative ventures, many of which turn out disastrously. There is absolutely no speculation or risk in the use of Dr. J. C. Dewell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction in all cases of constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred troubles. Ask your druggist. If he does not keep it, send his name to Pepsin Syrup Co., Montreal, Ill., and they will send you a sample bottle free.

Seriously Ill.

Mr. Hiram Scoggan, the well-known turfman, is seriously ill at the home of Mr. Lon Jones, on the Bardstown road.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered. F. L. WILKINS, Shell Lake, Wis. THE ATHLETIC GIRL.

Responsible for the Larger Shoes and Gloves That Are Worn.

The athletic girl of to-day is a surprise to people who have not been noting her development. She has grown beyond all recognized standards to classical dimensions.

The bootmaker still calls a 4 B shoe his model, exhibits it in his window, and it is a pretty little thing to see. But the athletic girl, who has been brought up in a family where she has had an opportunity to live a healthful, natural life, with plenty of outdoor exercise, says an authority, lingers at such tiny things.

The athletic girl has brought about an entire change in the history department of the shoe. There was never a time when they were prettier or more extravagant things for women in the cobweb varieties of fine lisle thread and silk. Women wear these expensive things for outdoor sports as well as for dress occasions, but the sizes have developed with the women who wear them. Where 8, 9 and 10 were worn five years ago, the girl of to-day wears 9, 10, 11, and she would wear 11 if she could get it.

In the shoe shops there is the same noticeable change. The boots are made to go over the 10 and 10½ silk stockings.

In the "misses" department of the fashionable shoe store spring heel shoes hang from children's size up to boots so big that they might belong to young giants. They are for athletic girls who are kept children as long as possible and wear the spring heel boots until they are ready to make their bow to society.

Gloves have changed with other accessories of the feminine wardrobe, and the well built girl wears 6½, 7 and 7½ in place of the 5½, 6 and 6½ that have been worn. For one thing, her hands are not only larger, but the longer stops the circulation by squeezing her hands into a glove a size too small for her. She cannot tool a coach or handle an automobile with hands in a vise, so she wears something that is an easy fit.

THE BOY JOHN WESLEY.

No Evidence of Any Precociousness in His Religious Development.

Of the 19 children born to Samuel and Susanna Wesley, only ten survived the period of infancy, and of these only three were sons. John was 13 years younger than Samuel and six years older than Charles. Of his early boyhood, writes C. T. Winchester, in the Century, an excellent account is recorded. On a February night in 1709 the rectory was burnt. The family, lying up in a barn, left the house in a panic. A 15-year-old child, Dr. J. C. Dewell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction in all cases of constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred troubles. Ask your druggist. If he does not keep it, send his name to Pepsin Syrup Co., Montreal, Ill., and they will send you a sample bottle free.

His mother denied his rescue a providential incident that her son was preserved for some great work, and resolved, as she says, "to be more particularly careful of the soul of this child than hast to be mercifully provided for." There is, however, no evidence of any precocious in the religious development of the boy, but only a certain stand over deliberateness, which he got from his mother, but which to the non-natural temperament of the father seemed, as a lad yet only half grown, half amusing and half vexatious. "Sweetheart," said the mother to his wife, "I profess to think our boy Jack wouldn't attend to the most pressing necessities of nature unless he could give a reason for it."

Red Blindness.

Inability to "see red" is the main form of color blindness from which sailors suffer. Last year 34 officers and would-be officers of the mercantile marine failed to pass the color tests; and of these 23 were more or less completely red blind, the rest more or less unable to distinguish green. The 4,600 candidates for certificates were also submitted to a test for vision, and 22 of them failed to distinguish the form of the object submitted.

An Ancient Tree.

In the orangery of Versailles is the oldest pomegranate tree in France. It dates back to the establishment of the orangery in 1685. In exceptionally warm and bright seasons the old tree still decorates its branches with a few flowers, but no fruit has been seen upon it for a long time.

CHAIRMAN GARY'S REMOVAL.

The removal of Chairman Geo. E. Gary from the head of the Democratic committee, in the midst of the most important campaign that has ever confronted the Democratic party in Kentucky, was a piece of animosity that will make it almost impossible to unite the party in the support of the ticket.

Mr. Gary represented the largest faction of the party, if there be factions. He was backed by more than 600 majority of the popular vote, as cast for Judge C. H. Bush, and was supported by 13 of the 24 members of the committee with legal titles to their seats. Being opposed to any kind of machine rule or bossism in the party, Mr. Gary was not the kind of man to be controlled by professional spoilsmen.

He was in a better position to harmonize the party than any man in the county, but he refused to bow the knee that thrift might follow fawning and his removal was demanded by those in control of the local machine and seeking to make the county committee wholly subservient to their orders. Conservative men among their own friends warned them that to continue the fight inside the party at this time meant hopeless ruin of Democratic prospects, but Mr. Geo. V. Green, thrust for revenge and his son-in-law, Col. Ashby Edmunds, demanded Gary's head, harmony or no harmony. And they got it, both standing by with thumbs turned down, ward till last, their followers refusing to go into executive session to deprive their leaders of the pleasure of leasing their eyes upon the bloody spectacle, as Gary's gory head rolled into the basket, with a Beckham appointee at the lever to let the knife fall.

The sweets of revenge are theirs. From the standpoint of a high prize in the rear ranks, claiming the privilege of a Democrat who has voted a straight ticket for nearly a quarter of a century, we make bold to say to Robespierre, Danton and Marat that France is sick of the sight of blood. They have already gone too far. Many Democrats in Christian county have already been alienated by unwise leadership.

As for Mr. Gary, he retires with the respect and confidence of the Democrats of the county and district. He is a business man of character and standing, a gentleman whose honor and integrity of purpose are above question. Always loyal to his party, always ready to give of his time, his energy and his means to promote success, he has for nearly ten years served his party without fee or reward. We can see no advantage to the party in removing such a man from a position of usefulness, because he represents the views not in accord with those of a minority faction of the Democrats of the county.

Mr. James West is a good Democrat, a prominent business man and has ideas much more conservative than the faction behind him will tolerate. The first time he attempts to assert his independence, or refuses to obey orders, he too will be deposited in the interest of "harmony."

If this warfare upon the friends of C. H. Bush is to wreck the Democratic party in this district, the responsibility will rest upon those bosses who are unwilling for the Pool Killer to do his duty among those who imagine that Christian county Democrats can be made to submit to being ruled and to a system of political patronage destroying their self respect and forcing them to adopt heroic measures to rid the party of their domination.

At least two prominent Kentucky Republicans, not on the State ticket, are playing for big stakes in the coming election. Balknap was Commissioner Yerkes' choice for Governor, brought out by him, and if Balknap carries Kentucky Yerkes expects to be nominated for Vice-President. Judge George DuRelle, who is chairman of the campaign committee, has his eye on the Supreme Bench, as Justice Harlan's successor. It is believed that his appointment depends on Balknap's election.

Mr. Jeff Stierrett, editor of the Hawesville Plaindealer, who died a few days ago, was one of the old newspaper men of the State, now growing scarcer every year. He was a soldier under Gen. John H. Morgan and was captured on the Ohio raid. He was 71 years old and leaves a widow, one son and three daughters.

The jury in the Jett and White case brought in a verdict, Friday morning, giving both defendants life sentences. One juror, Jasper King, saved them from hanging. An appeal was taken. Curt Jett will soon be put on trial for the murder of Jim Cockrell, in which the evidence is stronger against him than in the Marcum case.

J. J. Jeffries again sustained his title to the heavy weight championship, knocking out J. J. Corbett at San Francisco in the tenth round. The fight brought Jeffries $32,000 and Corbett $11,000.

Balknap will open his campaign at Munfordsville Sept. 12.

The great number of dyspeptics is increasing daily. This is due to hurried eating and lack of care in selecting proper food.

There is nothing more effective to the rundown digestive organs than pure pepsin, and while pepsin alone corrects the overworked digestive organs, a tonic, such as pure port wine, is also necessary to keep them in this condition.

Walter's Peptonized Port, to be found at Anderson's, Louisville, and Jas. O. Cook's, combines in exact proportions the purest pepsin and richest port wine. It is highly recommended by thoughtful physicians.

WARD IN JAIL.

Fugitive Captured in California and Brought to Nashville.

Former Superintendent of Odd Fellows' Home to Be Taken to Clarksville for Trial.

Homer D. Ward, formerly Superintendent of the Odd Fellows' Home at Clarksville, charged with criminal intimacy with two little girls who were inmates of the institution, arrived in Nashville Friday night and is now confined in the Davidson county jail.

Ward's hiding place was in the mountains of California, at the little town of Amador, about 45 miles north of Sacramento. For over two months he had been there, holding the position of book-keeper for the Keystone Supply Company, his salary being $100 a month. This company operates gold mines, and runs a supply store. Ward's position was in the store.

After leaving Clarksville about eight months ago, since which time no trace of him could ever be found until the Nashville officers got on his trail, Ward worked his way to the far West, stopping for a few weeks at every large city until he could earn money enough to push further on. An employment bureau at San Francisco secured the position for him with the mining company, and so remote was the place that it seems that he might have spent the remainder of his life there without something miraculous happening in favor of the strong arm of the law. Ward had been living under the assumed name of Will Wright.

Ward will probably be kept in the Nashville jail a few days before being taken to Clarksville. There has been some talk of probable violence to Ward if he is taken back to Clarksville, but it is believed that the citizens will be willing for the law to take its course.

The circuit court of Montgomery county, Tennessee, will convene this week, and it may be that steps will be taken to secure an immediate trial of Ward. One indictment has been returned against him, and another little girl will be taken before the grand jury at this term. President Metzger, of the Board of Trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home, stated that Attorney Dancy Fort, Secretary of the board, has volunteered his services to assist in the prosecution. Other counsel will probably be retained by the Odd Fellows.

An Invitation to Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Aug. 17.—Kind air or madam, did you ever live in Cincinnati? Do the memories of your childish days carry you back to long traumas among the green hills of Eden Park, picnics in Burnett Woods, swims in the canal, skating on the basin, and a thousand other diversions of a care-free, happy childhood, in the old home? Perhaps you have sought fame and fortune in other cities, deeming the measure of Cincinnati too small for your dawning ambition. Well and good; but come to the old home in September and celebrate the Fall Festival with us, for we have some things to show you that are worth seeing and a royal welcome awaits you. On the remembered sites of old houses and dingy shops, you will see the magnificent new buildings, some under construction, some, the skyscrapers, interrogating the very heavens. You will observe the only concrete building in the land, an experiment in construction, that has focused the eyes of the building world on Cincinnati. Over a network of trolley lines, the swift cars will bear you along those country roads, known erstwhile to your weary childish feet, long avenues now, these same roads, bordered with hundreds of happy homes, smiling among green lawns. Our most distinguished men will welcome you, and we will banquet you, carry you in procession, show you our Fall Festival and our great Industrial Exposition, and will proudly exhibit to you new and greater Cincinnati, of which perhaps you know nothing, but with which we desire you to become acquainted. On Home Comer's Day, Sept. 7th, we expect to see you in old Cincinnati. From east, from west, remember, "Homes Best."

Yours truly,

A COOL RECEPTION.

No. 332, which formerly left this city at 5 o'clock a. m., now leaves at 6:40 a. m. The night train which formerly arrived at 9:25 now reaches here at 11:10 p. m. The morning train now runs through from Hopkinsville to Cairo and returns here at night. The Hopkinsville train will make connection at Cairo for Chicago and St. Louis. The Paducah-Cairo Division has just been completed and the first scheduled train passing over the new road was the Hopkinsville accommodation, which made the round trip Sunday. Passengers leaving here at 6:40 a. m. arrive in Cairo at 11:35
a. m.

With the opening of the new branch of the Illinois Central four divisions of the road will enter Paducah—Louisville division, Tennessee division, St. Louis division and the Paducah-Cairo division.

Approximately, the new branch,
which is about 35 miles long, cost, $2,000,000. Originally it was to cost $900,000. The excessive expense was caused by many washouts during the high water last winter and spring. Portions of the road had to be built as many as three times. There was also considerable expense in connection with suits for right-of-way. These figures do not include rolling stock.

Mysterious Circumstances.

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health used Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it, by gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and ward off constipation. Try them Only 25c at sler, of near Larkin, died Friday of congestion of the brain.

WISDOM'S WAY.

Unfailing Method of Securing Success in Any Business.

If anyone wants to know why the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Enormous Shows United is so successful they have only to look about and see at every hand their advertising. If they do such a world of business, it is because they do a corresponding world of advertising. The same principle holds true with the business done
by any of the local merchants.
Alexander T. Stewart, pioneer of the great merchant princes in this country, used to say that at least one-third of a merchant's investment should be in advertising, and the remaining two-thirds in his stock. Merchants like John Wanamaker, Seigel & Cooper, and others, of the best department establishments throughout the country, as a matter of fact, spend about as much money in advertising as they do in buying stock. This does not necessarily mean that they must make one hundred per cent. profit in order to do so as might appear on the surface. The greatest item of expense of such great circus establishments as the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Enormous Shows United is that of advertising. Their enormous success shows the wisdom of their policy in that direction. These great shows will appear here on Thursday; August 27.

DEFICIENCY APPROPRIATION

Must be Made or R. F. D. Routes Suspended.

Congress at its next session will have to authorize a deficiency appropriation of $6,000,000, or the establishment of rural free delivery routes will have to be suspended from January 1 to June 30. The astounding discovery has just been made by the postoffice authorities that half of the $12,500,000 appropriated for the rural free delivery system during the present fiscal year has been suspended. Of this sum only sufficient remains to continue the development of the system for the current year. It will be exhausted by Jan. 1.

Keep the body healthy at this season by using Prickly Ash Bitters. It is a necessary condition to successfully resist malarial germs.

PEARL FISHING

A Profitable Industry in Some Regions.

William H. Curtis, in the Chicago Record-Herald, writing from the pearl fishery of the upper Mississippi river says:
Pearls are not numerous, but some big stories are told of valuable finds. A "clammer" may work all his life without finding one, while his neighbor may pick up a fortune unconsciously any day.

The largest pearl found this season was taken out of a pool of the Mississippi near Prairie du Chien, Wis., by a young boy. It was of perfect shape, pure white and weighed 185 grains. It was sold to a local jeweler on speculation for $2,750, but is supposed to be worth several times that amount. Pearls worth from $50 to $500 are found occasionally, frequently enough to keep up the excitement. Last year at least a dozen were found that brought over $1,000 each, and a hundred or more that were sold for at least $100 each. Tiffany and other dealers send out buyers, who make their headquarters at La Crosse and other cities, and cruise up and down in steam launches visiting the clam camps which are scattered along the river.

An inferior variety of pearls of imperfect shape or color or with haws that disfigure them are known as "slugs" by the fishermen and "baroques" in trade. They are found more frequently than the perfect pearls and sell for from 25 cents up to $25, according to their quality.

Don't neglect the warnings of nature. If your appetite is poor, breath bad, tongue coated, you will be sick unless you take steps to put your system in good condition.
Prickly Ash Bitters is the remedy you need. It cleanses the entire system. R. C. Hardwick.

Denies a Report.

Louisville, Aug. 12.—President
Barnard, of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse company denies the report published in New York that the Continental Tobacco company is to acquire 51 per cent. of the warehouse stock.

Portify the body to resist malarial germs by putting the system in perfect order. Prickly Ash Bitters is a wonderful system regulator.

SHOT DEAD.

Homicide Near Howell Last Saturday.

Jabin White Slain By Jimmie
Lewis Hart Without Apparent Cause.

Jimmie Lewis Hart shot and killed Jabin White Saturday, on the farm of Howard Brame, near Howell. White was a negro boy about 14 years of age. Hart went to the home of the boy's mother and telling him that he had told him he would kill him on that day, shot him with a pistol. Further details are meager.

The coroner held an inquest and the verdict fixed the crime on Hart.
The latter was arrested and is now in jail.

PUGH TURNED DOWN

McInerney Forces Democratic Committee to Call Primary.

Covington, Ky., Aug. 14.—The Anti-Pugh faction of the Democratic party won a signal victory tonight when the county executive committee held a meeting and decided on a primary for the selection of city and county nominees.
The date selected was Saturday, September 26. This is considered a big victory for Sheriff McInerney and his followers. They have been demanding a primary for months,
and went so far as to get up a petition which contained nearly 5,000 signers, which they presented to the committee and also Governor Beckham asking for a primary.

Beckham declined to interfere, but the McInerney forces made such a hard fight that Pugh's committee could not turn them down, as it was made plain to them that if a fair primary was not held there would be no chance for the local Democratic ticket in Kenton this fall. The calling of a primary practically means the defeat of Judge James P. Tarvin for the re-nominations for circuit judge, and many fear it means the overthrow of Joe Pugh.

The Commonwealth's side of the Caleb Powers case was closed at Georgetown yesterday.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.
The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.
If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or untidy heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake
by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the kidney for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits
by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle by mail. Send to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.
Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SNOWBALL FIGHT

In August Enjoyed by Workmen
In Pennsylvania.

Employees of the Hawes Fire
Brick Company of Philadelphia, had a snowball fight one day last week. Last winter a large quantity of snow was carried out of the yards and dumped behind the stock sheds in a great pile. Later in the winter ashes were thrown over the snow. On removing these ashes it was found that the snow had not melted. The gang of workmen was divided into two armies, and a winter carnival was held under the hot August sun.

Differences Patched Up.
Differences in Tammany have been patched up, and John C. Sheehan, the leader of the Greater New York Democracy, will re-enter that organization.

Not Over-Whip.
There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grasshopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by C. K. Wyle, druggist.

Rioters Arrested.
Eighteen men and one woman were arrested on the charge of complicity in the recent rioting in Danville, Ill.

Look in The Glass.
What do you see? A face covered with pimples, blotches, or blackheads, a yellow skin, lusterless eyes—do you know what the trouble is? Are you going to continue to use soaps, powders or other cosmetics, or will you remove the cause by getting your system in order? If your stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are in good condition, your complexion will be right again in a short time. Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin regulates the organs of digestion and excretion. Sold by all druggists on the manufacturers' guarantee.

Back at Work.
The big strike at the Pennsylvania engineering works at Newcastles, Pa., involving 670 men, has been declared off, and the strikers are back at work.

Coming as it does, in the busiest season, when a man can least afford to lose time, a sure and quick cure for diarrhoea is very desirable. Anyone who has given it a trial will tell you that the quickest, surest and most pleasant remedy in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. There is no loss of time when it is used, as one or two doses of it will cure any ordinary attack. It never fails, not even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by C. K. Wyle, druggist.

Father and Son Convicted.
At Whitesville, N. C., Jabel Register and his father, H. B. Register, were convicted of murder. The son was sentenced to be hanged and father to life imprisonment.

Watch for a Chill.
However slight at this time of year and in this climate, it is the forerunner of malaria. A disposition to yawn, and an all tired out feeling even comes before the chill. Fervent by its proper stimulative action on the liver, drives the malarial germ out of the system, purifies the blood, tones up the system and restores health. 50c at R. C. Hardwick's.

A Bad Wreck.
One trainman was killed and another seriously hurt in a bad wreck on the Rock Island railroad near Alma, Kan.

RAILWAY TO EUROPE

New Interest in the Project of New York to Paris by Rail.

The idea is not so chimerical as it would seem at first thought—To Tunnel Beneath Behring Straits.

When a few years ago some explorers and engineers suggested an all-rail route Paris via a tunnel under the Behring straits, it was considered as the wildest of dreams. But that there is more to the scheme than idle speculation is evident from the fact that the projectors of the new road (French and Russian capitalists and an American banker), have just filed a petition with Secretary Hitchcock, of the interior department, for approval of the proposed route. This petition will undoubtedly be followed by an application to congress for a land grant through Alaska. Col. James Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, Holmes Conrad, former solicitor for the department of justice, and Charles H. Aldrich, of Chicago, are the attorneys for the projectors. The petition, it is believed, will be given the most favorable consideration by the United States to neutralize the straits as between nations, so that, in the event of war with China and Japan or Russia, no advantage will be given to the enemies of Russia.

The tunnel under the straits would be between Cape Prince of Wales, the most westerly point of Alaska, and East Cape, the most easterly point to Siberia, and will, according to a report of the engineers, prove a comparatively easy task, for beneath the water, which in no place is over 23 fathoms, the formation is not of rock, but soft, and the blasting would be necessary, and the Diamende islands in the straits are so placed as to offer the most convenient means of ventilation of the tunnel. The straits, commonly reported to be from 17 to 30 miles wide, are actually 40, and the first island is 15 miles from East Cape, the second is 16 miles from East Cape, and the third five miles from Cape Prince of Wales. Harry de Windt, the explorer, journalist and engineer, who was a party to the Russian expedition in 1888, declared after he had carefully surveyed the situation, that the difficulties to be encountered in tunneling and constructing the straits to connect with the trans-Siberian road were not one-quarter those to be encountered in the construction of the White Pass railroad, dreamed of ten years ago by J. H. Hill, for further north the mountain division of the straits is thickly wooded to within 50 miles of Cape Prince of Wales, run north and south.

A MAP OF BEHRING STRAITS.

According to the present plans, the Trans-Alaska Railroad company, of which Mr. J. F. Fry, of Denver, Col., is president, will construct the road of 2,600 miles to Chukotka, and the Russian government will operate the Siberian side of the road. The White Pass railroad is paying enormously, and it is certain that the new road would pay equally well, for there are vast forests, tin deposits at Cape Prince of Wales, copper deposits and gold in the straits, and a value which is not yet known or realized.

The entire cost of building the connecting lines in Alaska and Siberia, and constructing the tunnel would not be as great as that of the New York subway. It is planned to make the road single track for freight with sidings, and will enable a train to pull out of Paris, and three weeks later enter New York city.

Engines of a peculiar type could be constructed to obviate the annoyance of the expansion and the contraction of metal, for in midwinter the temperature at East Cape is 75 degrees below, and in the summer time for a brief period, it is 90 degrees above. The cups would have to be fitted with lamps in the winter time. It is certain that within the next 12 years the electric lines will be perfect and this will simplify the project of railroading in the arctic.

Porty engineers who were sent out by the Russian government for the purpose of surveying the proposed road have planned no mountain climbing or tunneling. The route by taking would avoid the mountains from Irkutsk to Yokuts, a distance of 2,600 miles. This section is now under construction. From Yokuts the road will extend its way to Verkhoyansk, and then strike due northeast to Verin Kolyma; then south 100 miles, and thence to East Cape. Conveyance would be used in Siberia, and the forests would supply the ties and lumber for 1,000 miles of sheds in Siberia and Alaska.

M. Louis Lobet, member of the Geographical society, and one of those interested in the great scheme, passed through San Francisco recently. In talking of the plans he declared that 12 years would see the road and tunnel completed and trains running.

GUIDE THOU MY WAY.

O Father, when I dimly see
The path whereon my feet might stray,
With living eyes I turn to Thee,
And in humility I say:
Guide Thou my way.
When weak strength I dare not try
To swing tempter's hand to slay;
To you alone I must rely,
To make me stronger day by day,
So guide my way.
I know my path is strewn with Many a snare and many a foe;
But lead me to a pleasant spot,
And I will follow when I pray:
Guide Thou my way.
O Father, that the soul's best end
Is in usefulness it may Upon Thy sacred sites attend,
And I will follow when I pray:
Guide Thou my way.
God! Thou my way clear to the last,
When trying hard to do my best,
And may no record of the just Shame to me eternal rest
And give me peace, in Heaven lodge.

A USEFUL BURGLAR.

Molly Carson stood at the top of the kitchen stairs shielding with glowing fingers the candle that she held above her head. She heard muffled snoring among the panes that Aunt Sally had left on the table when she went to her cabin for the night, and she shrank from venturing into the darkness below. But as she hesitated, peering anxiously down the flight, a groan from another room needed her reluctance. Lifting her skirts she ran quickly over the stairs, for Edward, her husband, had been seized at midnight with a violent headache, the result of riding too long in the afternoon, and was begging deliciously for ice. So ice Molly must have, even if it meant braving the terrors below.

The refrigerator was in a lean-to opening from the kitchen. Mrs. Carson found the door shut and fastened securely against all her pushings and shakings, and the end of the key, glinted suspiciously at her through the keyhole, as if taunting her inability.

Hunning upstairs, she left the candle on the table in the dining-room, and went out of doors to try to open the outside shed door. The moon shone dimly through fleecy April clouds, and a whippoorwill called insistently from a nearby field, in the note that sounds more melancholy in the North Carolina mountains than anywhere else in the world.

The outer door proved as obstinate as the inner. Molly rattled it in vain, and then fell to pulling at the wire netting over a little window beside it. The tears rolled down her cheeks as she tugged with no success. A ragged bit of gauze tore her fingers, but she did not mind the pain. The sound of Edward's voice inside the house, rising and falling in the babble of delirium, spurred her to continued effort, and defied her to the cry of the whippoorwill. She did not even hear the sound of approaching footsteps, until a man came around the corner of the house so quickly that he almost ran into her.

"Well!" he exclaimed, standing immovable.
"Heavens!" she cried at the same moment, shaking her head to foot, and hardly able to articulate. "What do you want?"

Her heart thumped furiously, but through her fear there ran the thought that whatever happened Edward must have the ice.

The man regained his self-possession as he saw her plight.

"It looks like we'll all on the same bitness," he chuckled, pointing to the window, and giving her a poke in the arm with a dirty thumb.

"I don't understand you; I am Mrs. Carson," said Molly, throwing back her fair head haughtily. Then, recalled by his gesture to her occupation, she forgot her terror in the thought that there was a man—a strong man—who could help her. She began again to work feverishly at the netting.

"Mr. Carson's very ill. He's out of his head, and I want to get some ice for him. The door from the kitchen is locked," she explained. "There!" triumphantly, as a corner gave way in response to a vigorous tug. "Now you pull on that," she commanded, and the would-be burglar, nothing loath, gave a jerk that brought off the whole covering.

"Splendid!" exclaimed Molly, and prepared to climb in at once.

"No, you don't, ma'am," said the man. "Let me go in first and assist you—"

He pushed his bulky frame through the small casement, and then helped Molly, with a caution not to "laxate" herself. Without a thought for the strangeness of her position, locked into the shed with this rough fellow, Molly went at once to the refrigerator.

"Unlock that door at the left,"

please," she said. "You'll find a candle and matches on the shelf over the kitchen table. Now," with uplifted voice as she heard the splutter of the match, "bring me a pan to put the ice in. Thank you. What a relief it is to have this!" and filling the tin she crossed the kitchen and began to go upstairs, so absorbed in her purpose that she no longer noticed her companion.

"Here you, ma'am, don't you all go back on your pal that a-way," said he, with a return of the audacity of which her air of command and her unconsciousness of the situation had robbed him.

Molly paused midway on the flight. "Oh, I'd forgotten. You came to—get things, I suppose? I'm sorry," she went on politely, "but I'm afraid there isn't a thing you can get. You see, this is a furnished cottage, and all the silver is plated, which isn't any use to you, of course. And we never keep any money in the house, though I think—I think—" with an effort at remembrance, "that I have two quarters in my purse; if that would be of any service to you?" tentatively.

The man seemed about to express his disappointment, when Mrs. Carson thought again of her husband. "I mustn't stay here talking. I've been getting this ice," and straightway she ran upstairs, leaving Gus McLatchie standing in the middle of the kitchen floor.

"Well, I'll be hanged!" he said, slowly. Then, as his hostess had not locked or even shut the door at the head of the stairs, he followed in her steps.

Molly found Edward in wild delirium that even the ice did not allay. "What shall I do? Oh, what shall I do?" was her dumb cry, as she struggled fiercely with her, and in answer came the thought of the burglar. Leaving Edward to fate for a few minutes she ran to seek her fellow-housebreaker. She found him in the dining-room looking over the silver by the light of the candle she had left there. As she entered he turned, startled, and made a nervous gesture toward his pocket.

"Oh, I'm so glad you're still here," cried Molly, excitedly. "Please come with me. Mr. Carter is dreadfully delicious, and I don't know what to do. Come," and she twitched his sleeve to hasten his hesitating progress.

McLatchie followed slowly, but once in the sickroom his diffidence vanished. Many a case of delirium tremens among his friends had given him confidence as a nurse. Mrs. Carson became his subordinate with instinctive surrender, for she saw that with the sick man he was alert and capable, and showed a marked gentleness—bred, perhaps, by his vocation.

Three o'clock had struck before Carson sank into the quiet of exhaustion. Molly's face fairly glowed with gratitude as she turned to McLatchie.

"You've been so good—so good," she cried. "I shall never forget it." The man grinned, with honest pride. Though the smile did something to redeem his face, Molly appreciated for the first time since his abrupt appearance what a rough-looking fellow he was. Now that all was quiet she grew eager for him to leave.

"If you're going through the village," she said, "would you stop at Dr. Brady's and ask him to come here at once? It's the rock house opposite the post office."

The grin faded from McLatchie's face.

"The rock house opposite the post office?" he repeated. "I'd rather not go there, ma'am. You see—you see, I've visited there once to-night already."

"But why should that prevent you? Oh! You mean you? O—oh!" Molly stared at the man with some little fear as the import of his words dawned on her, but her gaze at him comprehended Edward, and a greater fear seized her as she thought of her situation if left alone with him during another paroxysm. Drawing closer to McLatchie she looked guiltily about, and then whispered:

"Did anyone see you?"

"No."

"Then if I should write a note couldn't you leave it there? You see—"

Her voice broke, and she made a gesture of helplessness. The suspicion of tears was too much for Gus.

"Go ahead and write it. I'll do it," he growled.

At half-past four the old doctor was with Molly.

"Was I compounding a felony or anything?" she asked, smiling up at him.

And McLatchie, walking over the sleepers on his way to Denby, was experiencing a sensation new to him—a yearning for a woman's love like Molly's for her husband, and a feeling of complacency over his night's work, even though his pockets were empty.—N. Y. Times.

THIS DOG LIKED BEER.

Contracted the Vices of the Evil Company He Kept.

"It is said that a dog will not get drunk, but I happen to have a different opinion, and it is based on actual experience," remarked a young man who has a fondness for dogs, to a reporter for the New Orleans Times-Democrat. "Several days ago I read in the Times-Democrat of a French scientist who had experimented with the animals by administering alcohol. He got gold-fish, cats, made inebriates of cats and put water wagon notions in the heads of more than one canine. This learned man of science enquired the world to a little extent by his experiments, showing the effect of alcohol on animals. He stated that in order to get alcohol into a dog's stomach it was necessary to use tubes. The exhilarating effect was not long in showing, and he observed that the dog became very playful. The aftermath was a state of lassitude and drowsiness and remorse. Now I must dissent from those scientific findings to some extent. In the first place it is not absolutely necessary to use tubes in introducing the fluid in the case of a dog. I believe a dog thinks it respectable to do anything a man does. Of course, the dog is in error on this score, but he will emulate his master in spite of the moral principle that may be involved. A friend of mine had a dog that contracted all the vices of the evil human company he kept. I was one of his regular associates, too. We were in the habit of meeting at a certain place and time and patronizing the nearest dealer in liquors that are sold by the pailful. The dog was a full-fledged member of the club. He always frisked about the house until every member of the club reported and then he would sit down in the circle with us in satisfaction as if he were one of our human members. When some one mentioned a bucket of beer that dog would rush away and get the pail. He would also accompany the man who went for the beer, and on his return it would do you good to see the gladsome expression on his face. He always took a drink with the gang. His beer was poured him a pan. On one occasion all of the boys got into a lively mood, so did the dog. In fact, it was so lively that we broke up. The dog had taken a drink as often as any other member of the party. He was drunk. He started on a rampage and woke up every neighbor in the house. I never saw a more frolicsome or hilarious jag. In running down the steps he fell. He broke a leg and was otherwise bruised, and the next day he was wrapped in bandages, but when the gang met again he was there as hearty and as quick as ever. As the other members of the club, despite his disfigurement, in the case of that dog, if we had used tubes, the experience of this life would have been confined, and we could not have seen the pleasure would have been in the same proportion. He was a jolly, good fellow, that dog, and when he did we missed him greatly, as he was about the most interesting member of the coterie. No dissention voice was heard."

The Sea-Serpent.

The sea-serpent seems to be taken more seriously by some zoologists than by the general public. A few years ago a Dutch naturalist reviewed the evidence of alleged eye-witnesses, and concluded that such an animal may exist, that instead of being a serpent it is probably a man-of-war, or a little fish, or a piece of kelp, or a piece of seaweed, and that we may expect to find it about 200 feet long. It must resemble the ancient Plesiosaur, with a small head, very long neck, spindle-shaped body with two pairs of flippers, and a tail comprising half its total length. Later reports, with the fact that so large a mammal as the okapi has remained unknown on land until the twentieth century, causes a leading French naturalist, M. Racovitz, to express his belief in this hypothetical marine monster.
